ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

of

MERCY WORKS OUTREACH

A Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation

The following provisions are part of, and are incorporated into, the Articles of Incorporation of Mercy Works Outreach (the "Corporation"), a nonprofit corporation formed under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 317A. Articles I through III (name, registered office and incorporator) appear in the online Articles of Incorporation to which this document is attached.

ARTICLE IV
PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code (the "Code"). Within those purposes, the Corporation serves people experiencing homelessness in Minneapolis and the surrounding area by giving them clothing, blankets, hygiene items, food and other necessities free of charge. As part of this outreach, and as an expression of Christian faith, the Corporation may also offer prayer and provide Bibles, devotional materials and other worship aids to those who wish to receive them. The Corporation may also make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Code Section 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE V
RESTRICTIONS REQUIRED FOR TAX EXEMPTION

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles:

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV. No director or officer has any right, title or interest in or to any property of the Corporation.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public. The Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(c) The Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2).

ARTICLE VI
MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no members with voting rights. Any action that Minnesota law would otherwise require or permit members to approve may be taken by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VII
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a board of directors. The number, qualifications, terms of office, manner of election, removal and replacement of directors, including the terms of the first directors, shall be as provided in the bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII
PERSONAL LIABILITY

The directors, officers and volunteers of the Corporation shall not be personally liable for any debt, liability or obligation of the Corporation, and their private property shall not be subject to the payment of the Corporation's debts, liabilities or obligations.

ARTICLE IX
DURATION AND DISSOLUTION

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of its liabilities, the Corporation shall distribute its remaining assets exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(3), to one or more organizations then exempt under that section, or to the federal government or a state or local government for a public purpose. Any assets not so distributed shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
